Heal Us Again in 2010 2 Chronicles 7:14

Many Members, One Body (1 Cor 12): Reflections on VBS 2010

Vacation Bible School was a grand success for two reasons: 1) God's Word was the centerpiece and 2) Christian Chapel unified in sharing our faith in Jesus Christ. We often downplay our respective roles within the congregation but the fact is—there are no unimportant roles. We are one body though we are many members, all of us together working in Christ. We may be a foot, an eye, or an ear but we are individually indispensable to Christ's church. If we all possessed the same ability and function we would be really good at one thing but we would suffer in diversity. We should thank God for our various talents that, when pooled together, can produce such an event as VBS that voices our praise to the Lord.

Though the process was serious with respect to teaching Bible truths, there was also a lot of fun. In response to a question about helping the poor: "What do we put in our stomachs?" a 4 year old blurted, "BABIES!" (Food was intended!) One dear sister took the phrase "cloven tongues like as of fire" literally as she sought a way to light the tongues of her cast members on fire! Disturbingly, the greatest cheers arose when Ananias and Sapphira fell dead! Heaven only knows some of the other humorous things that went on behind closed doors!

With respect to the Lord's church, each one of us possesses some unique quality whether it is teaching, helping, administrating, following, or leading. This past week, these talents were on display in the areas of cooking, cleaning, serving, teaching, crafts, guiding, playing, and in general—loving others. There is more to VBS than simply caring for children; it also served to strengthen each one of us. Statements were vocalized or written regarding the effect that this past week had on deepening and strengthening the faith of many of us adults in the process.

The prayer of Jesus was (is) that we may be one (Jn 17.11, 22-23). Paul also urged unity among the brethren because of our common faith (Eph 4.1-16). One of our beloved hymns records: "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love; the fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above." Please pray that God will continue to strengthen our bonds with each passing day. One glorious day we will be rewarded for our efforts in demonstrating outwardly our love to and for God. It is then that we will be richly, eternally rewarded. To my Christian Chapel brethren: I appreciate you for all that you have done and continue to do in promoting the kingdom of our Lord! Thank you for VBS 2010!

Truly, MJR

RESPONSE

J.D. & JoAnn Walters responded Sunday morning desiring prayers of strength for them and their family. They asked they everyone pray for Jake and his family as he is serving the United States in Afghanistan

Greg Bennett responded Sunday night desiring the prayers of the church on his behalf.

We appreciate both of the good families and all they do for the church.

TAPES

The tapes of our gospel meeting with Leon Barnes are ready to be picked up. Please go to the Herbert Vaughan Library and get these if you signed up. Our thanks to Billy Powell for taking care of this for us.

ELDERS AND DEACONS

Will meet this afternoon at 4:30

THANK YOU

Thank you so much for all the concerns, thoughts, and especially the prayers. I wanted to give you an update on my condition. I have just received a good report from my doctor. There are no new cancer spots, some are gone, and what's left in my spine has decreased. The doctor is very hopeful that I will go back into remission. Please continue to mention me in your prayers. I will be finished with treatments in October. It is wonderful to have such a good Christian family as you. In Christian love, Dynell Nevins

PEW PACKERS TODAY at 5:30 PM

MISSION TRIP

There are several congregations that are going on a Mission trip to Rolling Fork, MS. We have 15 folks from Christian Chapel that are going to help paint houses and to build a house there. Thank you for your help of bringing snacks for the workers. The group will be meeting after services today for lunch and will leave immediately after. Thanks, ladies for all your help.

Call To Worship

Read Scripture— Greg Cooper

Psalm 119.129-136 ESV Your Word Gives Us Light

¹²⁹ Your testimonies are wonderful; therefore my soul keeps them.

¹³⁰ The unfolding of your words gives light; it imparts understanding to the simple. ¹³¹ I open my mouth and pant, because I long for your commandments. ¹³² Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is your way with those who love your name. ¹³³ Keep steady my steps according to your promise, and let no iniquity get dominion over me.

¹³⁴ Redeem me from man's oppression, that I may keep your precepts. ¹³⁵ Make your face shine upon your servant, and teach me your statutes. ¹³⁶ My eyes shed streams of tears, because people do not keep your law

Communion

Read Scripture—Terry Walters

Hebrews 12:12-15 ESV Acknowledging His Name

¹² Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, ¹³ and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed. ¹⁴ Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord. ¹⁵ See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no "root of bitterness" springs up and causes trouble, and by it many become defiled;
