Heal Us Again in 2010 2 Chronicles 7:14

Sharpening One Another

Lord allowing, my family and I will be away on vacation this week. Vacations are generally supposed to be an opportunity to "vacate" normal life, yet it often ends up being busier than if we had stayed home! However, it is nice and sometimes necessary simply to breathe the air and experience the sights of a new place just to change the scenery. As most of us understand, it is good to get away for at least a short while so that when we return, we can better appreciate home. Sometimes we take our small town along with its fairly quiet, conservative nature for granted. To be certain, when we visit other places that are not so friendly, it is always pleasant to return back to home sweet home.

July will mark our 3rd anniversary here in service along with you at Christian Chapel. It does not seem possible that this much time has passed but the calendar tells the truth. In many ways it seems as though we have been here only months because it has been such a pleasant part of our Christian journey. Many of you have become family as we have lived, loved, laughed, and cried together. You have allowed me to raise my family in a wonderful environment. It is truly a privilege to serve this church family. Though none of us are perfect, we are striving to be the best we can be for the sake of the Lord's cause. All of the blessings that we enjoy assuredly flow from our Maker's hand.

Thank you for enabling me to experience the greatest gift in the world: studying the message of God. My family is grateful for your support financially so that we may continue to serve the Lord in this partnership. As from day one, if you have concerns that need to be expressed or questions to be asked, my door is always open. If there are ways that I can serve you as a minister, it would be a privilege if you allow me the opportunity. I pray that the unity and harmony that this congregation has long deserved will continue in His church. Without doubt, God continues to bless each one of us as we strive diligently to prove our love to the Creator by demonstrating our love to and for one another. As Proverb 27.17 observes, "Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another." Each one of you is an inseparable part of our individual spiritual progress. May God help us to keep sharpening one another as we look forward to eternity together with God.

Truly, Marshall Jr. (The Eubanks Family)

Call To Worship

Read Scripture— Kevin Walters

Psalm 119.105-112 ESV Accept Our Praise!

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.
¹⁰⁶ I have sworn an oath and confirmed it, to keep your righteous rules. ¹⁰⁷ I am severely afflicted; give me life, O LORD, according to your word! ¹⁰⁸ Accept my freewill offerings of praise, O LORD, and teach me your rules. ¹⁰⁹ I hold my life in my hand continually, but I do not forget your law. ¹¹⁰ The wicked have laid a snare for me, but I do not stray from your precepts. ¹¹¹ Your testimonies are my heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart. ¹¹² I incline my heart to perform your statutes forever, to the end.

Communion

Read Scripture—Randle Gray

Hebrews 9.11-14 ESV Redemption Through Christ's Blood

¹¹ But when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and more perfect tent not made with hands, that is, not of this creation) ¹² he entered once for all into the holy places, not by means of the blood of goats and calves but by means of his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption. ¹³ For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the sprinkling of defiled persons with the ashes of a heifer, sanctify for the purification of the flesh, ¹⁴ how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God.
