2012 RESOLUTIONS: GIVING MYSELF IN 2012

Pray more often and more deeply

Be a better husband, father, and family member

Become a better preacher, minister, and friend

Learn to be a better student of the Bible

Give Christian Chapel my best effort in every regard to help her grow

Visit others more frequently—especially the wayward

Organize and prioritize my affairs more efficiently

Seek evangelism with greater zeal

Plant and water spiritual seeds

Never attempt to do God's work alone...

Thank You!

Dear Church Family, Words cannot express how much we thank you for everything you did not us and Randy during his sickness and passing. We thank you so much for the visits, phone calls, cards, hugs, money, beautiful flowers and plants and most of all your prayers. Please continue to pray for us as learn to live without Randy. May God bless each one of you. In Christian love, Brenda Burlison and family.

Call To Worship

Psalm 8: 1-9 ESV How Majestic Is Your Name!

¹ O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens. ² Out of the mouth of babies and infants, you have established strength because of your foes, to still the enemy and the avenger. ³ When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, ⁴ what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? ⁵ Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. ⁶ You have given him dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet, ⁷ all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field, ⁸ the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas. ⁹ O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Communion

Isaiah 53.1-6 ESV Our Suffering Savior

¹ Who has believed what he has heard from us? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? ² For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, and no beauty that we should desire him. ³ He was despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not. ⁴ Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. ⁵ But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed. ⁶ All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

SO TODAY I CHOOSE

It's quiet. It's early, my coffee is hot. The sky is still black with darkness. The world is still asleep. In a few moments, the day will arrive. It will roar down the track with the rising of the sun. The stillness of the dawn will be exchanged for the noise of the day. Calm and solitude will be replaced by the pounding pace of the human race. The refuge of the early morning will be invaded by decisions to be made and deadlines to be met. For the next twelve hours, I will be exposed to the day's demands. So it is now that I must make a choice.

I Choose Love. No occasion justifies hatred; no injustice warrants bitterness. I choose love. Today, I will love God and what God loves.

I Choose Joy. I will invite my God to be the God of circumstance. I will refuse the temptation to be cynical, the tool of the lazy thinker. I will refuse to see people as anything less than human beings created by God. I will refuse to see any problem as anything less than an opportunity to see God.

I Choose Peace. I will live forgiven. I will forgive so that I may live.

I Choose Patience. I will overlook the inconveniences of the world. Rather than complaining that the wait is too long, I will thank God for a moment to pray. Instead of clinching my fist at new assignments, I will face them with a smile.

I Choose Kindness. I will be kind to the poor, for they are alone; kind to the rich, for they are afraid; and kind to the unkind, for so God has treated me.

I Choose Goodness. I will go without a dollar before taking a dishonest one. I will see good in others when it is hard to find. I will confess instead of accuse.

I Choose Faithfulness. Today, I will keep my promises. My debtors will not regret their trust. My associates will not question my word. My wife will not doubt my love. My children will never fear that their father will fail to come home.

I Choose Gentleness. Nothing worthwhile is won by force. I choose to be gentle. If I raise my voice, may it be only in praise. If I clench my fist, may it be only in prayer. If I make a demand, may it be only of myself.

I Choose Self-Control. I am a spiritual being. After this body is dead, my spirit will soar. I refuse to let what will rot rule the eternal.

To these I commit my day. If I succeed, I will give thanks. If I fail, I will seek God's face.

From the Hoover Church of Christ, Hoover, AL (taken from House to House, Heart to Heart)

“The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance” Galatians 5:22-23
